What's your experience as a black woman in a sorority?

Being in my sorority has been a transformative experience for me, to have a sisterhood that celebrates my identity as a black woman is such an amazing experience. Having a community is so vital and it has given me a space to embrace my culture and heritage, and be around others who do the same. It's an incredible blessing I hope many others are able to experience as well!

Shout-Outs

What does Black History Month mean to you?

Black History Month is a time for me to reflect on the strength, resilience, and brilliance of Black people-past and present. It's a reminder of the sacrifices made so that I can stand proudly in spaces that weren't always meant for us. It's about celebrating our culture, our joy, and our endless contributions to the world. More than anything, it's a time to uplift each other, tell our stories, and continue pushing forward with pride and purpose.

"Being an athlete in Tri Delta is an amazing experience because I get to pursue my goals on the field while surrounded by sisters who inspire and encourage me every step of the way. It's made my experience so much more balanced and meaningful, knowing I have a group of women who genuinely care about me and want to see me succeed. Whether it's cheering me on at games, celebrating my wins, or lifting me up on hard days, my Tri Delta sisters are always there for me. The bond we share is something truly special, and it reminds me every day that I'm never alone in this journey."
