ARTICULATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN TEMPLE COLLEGE
AND
SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

INTRODUCTION:

Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas ("SU"), accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (the "Commission on Colleges") and comprised of the Brown College of Arts and Sciences and the Sarofim School of Fine Arts, enters into this Articulation Agreement with Temple College ("TC") also accredited by the Commission on Colleges.

A. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

Temple College and Southwestern University share mutual interests about the availability and quality of higher education in Texas. There is further shared interest in issues of access to higher education for all groups of Texans, to ensure a viable and strong future in the higher education environment for all who choose to participate.

TC provides coursework at the freshman and sophomore levels for students in Bell and Williamson, Texas and the surrounding area – this coursework leads to various certificates and associate degrees. SU offers undergraduate courses of study leading to baccalaureate degrees. The purpose of this Articulation Agreement is to provide guidelines and areas of responsibility and to facilitate the successful transition of students from TC to SU.

B. TERMS:

TC and SU, the parties of this Agreement (the "Parties"), agree to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

- TC and SU will cooperate in the identification of course offerings that will facilitate the transfer of credit from TC to SU to maximize the applicability toward the SU degree plan.
- TC and SU will each designate an individual who will be responsible for the continued updating and sharing of information on program changes, new courses added to the program, transcript evaluation, and other projects as agreed to by TC and SU.

- TC and SU will share non-confidential information regarding program development, course development, and special activities related to the Academic Program at each institution.
- This Articulation Agreement shall be filed with the Office of Enrollment Services and the Office of the Provost at SU, and with the Office of Dean of Student Services at TC.
- This Agreement may be amended by mutual agreement in writing at any time; this Agreement may be terminated by either party by providing one year's written notice to the other party at the addresses referenced under Notices.
- This Agreement is contingent upon continued accreditation of both institutions.

Southwestern University agrees to:

- Provide TC with non-confidential information regarding the SU Academic Program and provide updates in program changes or additions.
- Provide feedback on the progress of TC transfer students, as allowed by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) to the TC designate. This data may be incorporated into TC institutional effectiveness studies consistent with FERPA guidelines and regulations.
- Grant SU admission to TC participants when students fulfill the SU Admission Conditions set forth in Section C in this Agreement.
- Assist TC transfer students who have been admitted to SU in the transition from the TC into SU. This will include: merit scholarship consideration, need-based financial assistance consideration (as applicable), registration assistance, transfer orientation, academic advising, and on-campus housing (based on SU's housing availability).
- If a student transfers from TC, before completing their associate degree, to SU and has earned at least 32 credits or more of their appropriate coursework at TC, TC will reverse transfer courses completed at SU back into their associate degree program at TC and award an associate's degree if graduation requirements are met.
- Annually review and update the Texas Common Course Number (TCCN) Equivalency Guide in Addendum A.

Temple College agrees to:

- Promote this Articulation Agreement to students who seek a baccalaureate degree in a liberal arts learning environment.
- Provide the SU representative with a listing of approved courses annually or upon request.

- The TC's Transfer Counselor/Advisor will provide the SU representative with a list of students who are interested in transferring to SU. Such list will include student addresses, phone, email, entry term and major areas of study while attending TC (This information shall be provided regularly within the provisions of FERPA.)
- Assist SU in arranging campus visits at SU for prospective students.
- Schedule appointments for SU representatives with TC students, faculty, and staff for the purpose of sharing information, discussing ideas, and other activities of mutual interest.

TC and Southwestern University jointly agree to:

- Work together to further the opportunity and access by qualified students through the cooperative efforts and ventures by both institutions.

C. SU ADMISSION CONDITIONS:

- The TC students must submit a timely application for admission and scholarship to SU. The students must also submit all official college transcripts, official high school transcript or GED Certificate, SAT or ACT scores as applicable, and transfer statement of good standing from TC's College Official Report or Instructor Evaluation.
- The students should send all of the above-mentioned documents to SU by April 1st for fall admission or October 1st for spring admission.
- For TC students who apply for admission to SU under this Articulation Agreement who have completed 24 hours with one or fewer remedial, technical, or vocational courses and completed this work with at least a 3.50 cumulative GPA, SU will automatically grant admission upon submission and processing of an admission application and all required credentials, including a favorable College Official's Report.
- For TC students who do not meet the requirements described in the above item, but have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA are invited to submit an enrollment application, which will be reviewed by the SU admission committee with all other transfer applicants in a particular year. While admission to SU is not guaranteed, SU will work with students as additional space remains in the class.
- It is recommended that the student should have completed coursework as prescribed in Addendum A – TCCN Equivalency Guide.
- The SU Registrar's Office will be responsible for evaluation of the official transcripts and recommending transfer credit based upon the stated conditions in this Articulation Agreement.

- The student must complete specific courses in the TCCN Equivalency Guide with a grade of C minus or better for credit to be guaranteed.
- Courses taken outside the TCCN Equivalency Guide will be reviewed and credit awarded as appropriate.
